An excerpt of words of Pope Francis Call To Our Nation in Front Of Congress, Sept 2015:

From his private meeting with President Obama to giving the first-ever papal address before a joint session of Congress, Pope Francis did not shy away from politics during his three-day stop in Washington, D.C. (Julie Percha/The Washington Post)

An excerpt from his public address broadcast worldwide live to which this author here was watching and listening to him intently. He said to the world to what I agree has been a part of my missing portion of my mission work ideal - I have no fix for this and I cannot totally be in this community work alone. This is what he told or asked or advised us to do:

----- "All of us are quite aware of, and deeply worried by, the disturbing social and political situation of the world today. Our world is increasingly a place of violent conflict, hatred and brutal atrocities, committed even in the name of God and of religion. We know that no religion is immune from forms of individual delusion or ideological extremism. This means that we must be especially attentive to every type of fundamentalism, whether religious or of any other kind. A delicate balance is required to combat violence perpetrated in the name of a religion, an ideology or an economic system, while also safeguarding religious freedom, intellectual freedom and individual freedoms. But there is another temptation which we must especially guard against: the simplistic reductionism which sees only good or evil; or, if you will, the righteous and sinners. The contemporary world, with its open wounds which affect so many of our brothers and sisters, demands that we confront every form of polarization which would divide it into these two camps. We know that in the attempt to be freed of the enemy without, we can be tempted to feed the enemy within. To imitate the hatred and violence of tyrants and murderers is the best way to take their place. That is something which you, as a people, reject. Our response must instead be one of hope and healing, of peace and justice. We are asked to summon the courage and the intelligence to resolve today's many geopolitical and economic crises. Even in the developed world, the effects of unjust structures and actions are all too apparent. Our efforts must aim at restoring hope, righting wrongs, maintaining commitments, and thus promoting the well-being of individuals and of peoples. We must move forward together, as one, in a renewed spirit of fraternity and solidarity, cooperating generously for the common good. The challenges facing us today call for a renewal of that spirit of cooperation, which has accomplished so much good throughout the history of the United States. The complexity, the gravity and the urgency of these challenges demand that we pool our resources and talents, and resolve to support one another, with respect for our differences and our convictions of conscience."

You also might enjoy knowing that support for the mental health element of your function at Foothill Aids Project is found on the media materials produced by this networking presence on the web. We have more in common than we have differences. Pope Francis tells us to not divide our communities and society into two camps, the righteous and the sinners. That is exactly what you all in this conspiracy have done. You have put a divide into the observed focused Ryan White Care Act Policy to have judged a certain class of persons with HIV to be "The Sinners or The Dirty". This finally has made its way to have made a statically noticeable mark in the efforts of the 90/90/90 goals worldwide that we are way behind the fight to #EndHIV. Finally, you all know it, but you can't bury the truth of this secret --- and just think things are A-Ok. They are far from that holding status. They are way way way out of whack!

Art thou dejected?
Is thy mind o'er-cast?
To chase thy gloom,
Go fix some weighty truth;
Chain down some passion; do some generous good;

Teach Ignorance to see, or Grief to smile;
Correct thy friend; befriend thy greatest foe;
Be just in all things; make amends
For follies past, and, with warm heart,
Forgive, and be forgiven. Let work not words
Thy virtue prove. Go act as well as prate,
And then thy counsels will be strong,
Thy reprimands avail. —ANON

THE province of the historian is to gather the threads of the past ere they elude forever his grasp and weave them into a harmonious web to which the art preservative may give immortality. Therefore he who would rescue from fast gathering oblivion the deeds of a community and send them on to futurity in an imperishable record should deliver a plain unvarnished tale.

Ms. Brehme: I do not know what it will take for you to respond a response of responsibility. This web presence is holding a binding. You are in a different paradigm here understanding perhaps to conclude that you would not want to remain public visable in this attention getting light for an extended duration. What appears to be a business card is sourced from your actual therapist licence site. The source image is quickly found by google images search using your name. Further does not have a copyright affixed which means it is public domain usaable. I choose to take advantage of that status. For anyone to perform an image search of your name, it might be noticed there are other images in the return results displayed to the public interest of these circumstances documented by this networking web presence. This places a binding on to this casting that you as the subject of this web presence would not just ignore this!! It seems strange or a skew from any kind of normalcy that such exposure creates affixed to your name. Some might make the obvious conclusion that you are a bit [or a boast] irresponsible somehow to hold this web presence status in the first place. Further dyamically applied that would be for an extended period of time would be conclusive that you can't find yourself to right a wrong that you are involved in somehow. Even if that would be to make a domain query "content removal request". This web presence is demanding your accountability response upon matters which you internally know. These matters are too important of a contentious state life and death health related matters of a community to leave in silence holding an "intractable conflict" status. #ConspiracyExposedTerminatesASAP
